

UNIVERSITY CORE CURRICULUM APPROVED
ADVANCED CORE COURSES
(Substitutions)

University Core

Approved Advanced Course

ARC 3141	ARC 444 (3 credit hours)
CHEM 106	CHEM 140a, 200 and 201
ECON 113	ECON 240, 241, or ABE 204
ENGL 101/102	ENGL 120H (effective SU 09)
ENGL 205	ENGL 225, 325, or WMST
GEOL 111/112	GEOL 220 and 223, GEOL 221 and 224, or GEOL 222 and 223
GEOL 112	GEOL 113
HCM 298	DH 417
HIST 101a, b	HIST 207a, b
HIST 110	HIST 301
HIST 202	HIST 368
HIST 210	HIST 300
KIN 101	KIN 201
MUS 103	MUS 357a or b
PHIL 102	PHIL 304 or 305a and b
PHIL 104	PHIL 340
PHSL 201	PHSL 310 or AH 241
PHYS 101/103	PHYS 203a and 253a; 203b and 253b; 205a and 255a; 205b and 255b
PLB 115/ZOOL 115	BIOL 200a or b, MICR 201, PLB 200, or ZOOL 118, 220a or b (effective SU 08 drop a and b)
PLB 303i	ZOOL 304
THEA 101	THEA 220

Fine Arts	Architecture 231 and 232
Humanities Group 1 or Group 2	A student may substitute up to a maximum of three credit hours with either a third semester of a foreign language or a first semester or more advanced course in Latin or Classical Greek.
SCI Group 1	SCI 210A (for Elementary Education, Child and Family Services, and Preschool- Primary majors only)
SCI Group 2	SCI 210B (for Elementary Education, Child and Family Services, and Preschool- Primary majors only); or PHSL 201 and 208 (if not used for health)

A maximum of twelve semester hours of approved advanced coursework may be accepted for University Core Curriculum credit, with the exception of approved University Honors courses. A maximum of three semester hours of the University Honors Program may be accepted in each of the subareas of Fine Arts , Human Health, Multicultural: Diversity in the United States, and Interdisciplinary ; and a maximum of six semester hours of the University Honors Program may be accepted in each of the subareas of Humanities, Science and Social Science, subject to the advance determination by the director of the University Honors Program and the approval of the University Core Curriculum Executive Council.